

The Lottomatica Group has completed the acquisition of 100% of the share capital of Betflag S.p.A.

Rome, November 22, 2022 – Lottomatica S.p.A. announces that GBO S.p.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of Lottomatica, has completed the acquisition of 100% of the share capital of Betflag S.p.A. The transaction was financed with the release from escrow of the proceeds from Lottomatica's senior secured notes that were issued on September 27, 2022.

Lottomatica is the first group in the gaming market authorized by the Customs and Monopoly Agency in Italy and one of the major players in Europe. It is active in three main product areas: online games, sports betting, gaming machines. The Group can count on the expertise of over 1,500 direct employees and 16,000 people within the specialized franchising network. With approximately Euro 1.6 billion of revenues and Euro 22 billion of bet, Lottomatica offers safe and engaging gaming experiences across all sales channels. Lottomatica boasts a customer base of approximately 1 million online customers and manages the largest distribution network in the Italian gaming industry with more than 18,000 points of sales, including 6,000 specialised points of sales and 12,000 tobacconists and bars.